

leader on that. I think it is a reasonable request.

Mr. DASCHLE. With that understanding, I will not have any objection. I hope we can work to resolve that relatively minor matter.

Mr. LOTT. I want to confirm that there will be no recorded votes tomorrow. We will take up Interior or the Magnuson fisheries, if we can get an agreement. On Monday, we will take up the FAA authorization if we can get an agreement on the time and amendments. Then we would go back to Interior. There will be no votes during the day on Monday. We will have stacked votes on Tuesday morning at 9:30.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:41 p.m., adjourned until Friday, September 13, 1996, at 9:30 a.m.
